THE GUEST SPEAKER FOR OCTOBER

RON BROWN

Ron Brown of Atlanta, GA has been woodworking and teaching for more than 40 years, ranging from trim carpentry, cabinetmaking, furniture making, to wood turning. He is the founder of the Gwinnett Woodworkers Association (1998) and the Atlanta Scrollsaw Club, as well as an active member in AAW Chapter #192.

For the last 8 years, Ron has been a turning demonstrator on The Woodworking Show circuit, as well as other turning events. He is the designer/supplier of several woodturning accessories, such as Ron Brown's Best Longworth Chuck, Ron Brown's Best Steady Rest, and Ron Brown's Best Chatter Tool along with several other texturing tools.

He has also produced 15 videos on woodturning and scrollsawing, including: I Have A Lathe, Now What?; Project Sampler; Fancy Christmas Ornaments; Turned Lidded Boxes; Spinning Tops; Bottle Stoppers; Segmented Vases and Urns; Complete Chatter Tool Course; Keychain Font Package; Making Cool Hammers; and Kitchen Utensils—all available for purchase at his website: www.coolhammers.com.

Ron has also published the Turner's Reference Guide, in PDF format and a totally free business plan which teaches any crafter how to earn a significant part time or full time income with their handmade crafts. All materials are available for free from Ron's website: www.coolhammers.com.
